

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
) CASE NO. CR18-132 RAJ Plaintiff,)
v.)
) DETENTION ORDER
JAMES L. MAYERS,)
Defendant.)
_____)

Offenses charged:

1. Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances.
2. Possession of Cocaine and Marijuana with Intent to Distribute
3. Felon in Possession of a Firearm
4. Possession of a Firearm in Furtherance

Date of Detention Hearing: June 23, 2022.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f) and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant has been charged with a drug offense, the maximum penalty of which is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

2. Defendant poses a risk of flight based on the fact that he was aware of the current case and failed to turn himself in for four years. He has multiple failures to appear and has a history of committing new offenses while under supervision. A driver's license with Defendant's photograph but another person's name was found during a search of his residence, indicating either criminal activity or for use as a means to flee. Defendant's current employment as a delivery driver is unlawful because he has a revoked driver's license and multiple driving offense convictions.

3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial, and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

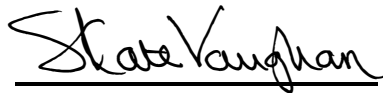

2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the

01 defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a
02 court proceeding; and

- 03 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for 04 the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Probation Services
05 Officer.
